

A vertical movie poster for 'Charlotte's Web'. At the top is a large white circle. Below it, the title 'Charlotte's Web' is written in a blue, ornate, serif font with gold outlines, set against a background of a spiderweb. The spiderweb is illuminated with small, warm lights. In the background, a yellow full moon is visible in a dark blue night sky. At the bottom, a small white pig with large pink ears is sitting on a wooden fence. A small black spider is on its forehead. In the distance, a small house with a chimney and a snow-covered tree are visible under a starry night sky.
