How much does it cost?

Licensing costs vary depending on a few simple variables. Request a quote at parks.swankmp.com/RequestQuote or give us a call at 1-800-876-5577 to chat about pricing.

How do I place an order?

Choose the titles you would like to show or let our experienced staff help you create your movie program. Once you've selected your date(s) and movie(s), contact your Account Executive by email or by phone at 1-800-876-5577.

How many days can I show the movie?

Standard licensing is valid for one day's use unless otherwise agreed upon. You may add additional days at a discounted rate.

Can I charge admission?

If you charge admission, your total licensing fee will be the flat rate versus 50% of your ticket sales, whichever is greater. Payment is due upon receipt of the invoice.

How do I cancel or reschedule my movie?

Any film, or show date, may be canceled or changed without obligation if Swank receives written notification 10 business days before the show date. If notification is not received in this timeframe, the full licensing fees and handling charges must be paid. Invoices are due at the time of the original show date. You will have up to one year to reschedule that same movie at no additional licensing fees.

What are the restrictions of the license for my movie?

You are permitted to use the studio-approved artwork provided by Swank Motion Pictures. Please note that these images may not be edited or altered in any way. We encourage you to inform your members and patrons via on-premises bulletin boards, organization websites, email, social media accounts or direct mail. Any promotion that is done by means of a marquee, lighted sign or billboard that will be seen by the public may not include the name of the movie.

What if my screening is affected by unforeseen circumstances like equipment malfunction, inclement weather, etc.?

If any problems arise that prevent you from showing your film on your scheduled date, you have the option to show the film again within one year at no additional rental charge. Regardless of rescheduling, all invoices are due at the time of the original show date.

How does shipping work?

You are permitted to rent or purchase a copy of the movie on your own.
